U.S. Postal Service seeking downtown Bay St. Louis outlet

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The U.S. Postal Service is now accepting bids for a contract postal unit in downtown Bay St. Louis.

The Postal Service is scheduled to move to the new Bay St. Louis facility on US-90 in November and plans to close the old facility as soon as the contract station is established, according to Tom Hill, postmaster.

The contract facility would offer downtown customers lock box service, stamp and money order sales, and parcel post and express mail acceptance.

The hours of window service would be from 9 to 11 a.m. and noon to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday. Mail will be distributed to locked boxes by 9 a.m. Monday through Saturday.

Anyone interested in providing space and personnel to operate the downtown contract station may pick up a solicitation package at the Bay St. Louis Post Office or call 832-4131 to have a package mailed to them.

The new contract facility building must be located within an area bounded by Carroll Avenue on the north, Union Street on the south, Beach Boulevard on the east and Nacaise Avenue on the west.

The majority of customers keeping boxes at the downtown facility will retain the same box number if possible, Hill stated.

Customers moving to the US-90 facility will all have new box numbers and the post office is now taking applications for these boxes.

All the mail routes for Bay St. Louis and Waveland will originate from the new facility on the Bay St. Louis and Waveland line.

Hill emphasized, "There will be no address changes for Waveland residents on the routes due to this change."

All other services will continue to be provided from the Waveland Post Office on Coleman Avenue.

The old Bay St. Louis facility is now being offered for sale to federal government agencies, and if no agency is interested it then will be offered to state and local governments. If there are no takers, the facility will then be offered to the general public by sealed bids.

Pope's New Orleans visit an emotional experience for Hancock residents

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

When Pope John Paul II visited in New Orleans Saturday, a large number of people from Hancock County were among the hundreds of thousands who flocked to the numerous special events held in his honor.

Sister Jane, principal of St. Clare Catholic School in Waveland, was one of the fortunate few who was able to do more than just view the pope from afar.

While attending the special services for priests and sisters in the St. Louis Cathedral, Sister Jane was sitting on the end of a bench where the pope came in and was able to shake his hand.

"It was a very deep religious experience for everyone and gives great hope for the church and for America," Sister Jane said.

Part-time Bay St. Louis resident, Pete Fountain, and his band The Big Easy were among the musicians providing jazz music at the Saturday afternoon UNO mass.

"It was a wonderful experience just to be near the man who creates such a feeling of electricity that it really touches people," Fountain said.

That was one thing I will always remember, he added.

Sister Jane said she had been in Rome in 1975 in a public audience but it was so crowded she could hardly even see the pope.

"The prayer service in the cathedral was really a beautiful experience and the pope told us to be Christ-like and continue to serve the people," she said.

Sister Jane, who also attended the mass at the University of New Orleans campus, said the most inspiring thing to her was the faith of the people who had been waiting for hours in the sun and in the rain.

"In spite of the waiting, there was such a reverence for the Eucharist and the presence of the pope, I am sure it changed people's lives," she added.

"I had borrowed my granddaughter Danielle Harrell's umbrella and did not know until later about the eyes and the beak," Fountain said.

Thirteen-year-old Leigh Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Chapman of Waveland, was among a group of youth from St. Clare who left at 5 a.m. to attend a youth rally in the Superdome.

"It was really exciting and the pope told us there is no room in the world for selfishness between the youth and we must put others first," she said.

Although Leigh did not get very close to the pope, she said you could really feel his spirit even before the pope entered the Superdome.

"It was really different to be in a crowd where everyone just listened to the message and did not cut up," she added.

"A lot of people were crying after the service was over and you could see people were really touched," she said.

Leigh also said it was great learning the song "Tutus Tuus" from Dana Scallion of Ireland, who wrote the song following the pope's 1979 visit to America.

Leigh's mother says this song is the only one Leigh has sung since returning from the youth rally.

Sally Erickson of Waveland also says she found the singing of this song by thousands of children to be very moving.

"Tutus Tuus means 'totally yours' and is based on the pope's motto," she said.

Erickson attended the youth rally with the Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Youth Organization.

County faces liability for trespasser injury on incomplete piers

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors is still having problems with people using unfinished boat launching facilities.

The board decided Monday to call upon the sheriff's department for assistance.

Beat Two Supervisor Ronnie Cuevas has two such facilities under construction in his district and both have been being used before completion.

Two weeks ago, Cuevas explained that the parking lot at a boat launch at Pearlington was not yet completed, that the ramp was too rough to provide the type of traction needed to get boats back out of the water and that construction workers still had not completed cleaning up the area.

He said he was concerned about safety and asked that the board block off the facilities and post signs to prevent the launch and pier from

200-year-old U.S. Constitution included

Franklin only signer of four historical documents

Editor's Note: Today (Sept. 17, 1987) we celebrate the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Federal Constitution. Following is a presentation by Friendship Oak Chapter, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution on Benjamin Franklin's contributions toward the cause of liberty and justice for all American citizens. One of the goals of the NS DAR is to preserve the history of our country.

By Joe Pilet

Benjamin Franklin during his 84 years of life (1706-1790) distinguished himself in many ways. He was the only man to sign all four key documents in American history.

His familiar signature is to be seen on (1) The Declaration of Independence (2) The Treaty of Alliance with France (3) The Treaty of Peace with Great Britain and (4) The Constitution of the United States.

Americans will surely well note and long remember Dr. Franklin's role in framing and signing the extraordinary document which guarantees every United States citizen freedom, justice and equality of opportunity.

With thankful hearts they will remember him as the greatest diplomat America has ever produced. They will remember his many services as a public minded citizen whose highest aim was "to be useful."

By comparison when we study the life of this utterly unselfish and highly intelligent man others are "weighed in the balance and found lacking."

Born in Boston in 1706 Benjamin Franklin was the son of Abiah and Josiah Franklin. Josiah, the soap boiler, fathered 17 children. Benjamin was the fifteenth child. There was little money to be spent on "book learning" so Benjamin had only two years of formal education. But he learned to read quite well and through his own efforts became a well educated man.

He was apprenticed to his ill-tempered older brother, James, who made life in his print shop very unsavory.

The man was jealous and arbitrary.

It is not surprising that Benjamin with three more years to serve as apprentice did a neat stow-away job and went to New York and Philadelphia.

We all know the bake-shop story and that he courted the landlady's daughter and that he left for "parts unknown" where two years of his life were spent.

The turning point in his life came when at age 20 he was returning from England and the luckless ship on which he was a passenger was beaten by headwinds, blown about, thrown off course by blizzards. Beleaguered. Delayed.

That return trip took 82 days. Eighty two days in which to think, agonize, review his past... wonder if his life would be spared and to make resolutions.

Finally the ship hove in to port and a determined young man marched down the gang plank, paused and thanked God. Then and there he took charge of his life. A life dedicated to usefulness.

Statesman and diplomat, scientist and inventor and with a powerful ability to organize, Benjamin Franklin had what it takes! He wrote with conviction and pure style. He had wit. When he spoke people listened. His speech was mild, direct and convincing.

The delegates who were sent by their state to represent them in Philadelphia were outstanding and dedicated men, intent in their deliberations to formulate the best possible government. Each had the good of his own state at heart.

From May until September 1787 they sweltered, endured heat and discomfort. No wonder at times tempers were short and arguments heated. At one point in a debate Benjamin Franklin arose and addressed the chair with the following remarks.

"Mr. President, I have observed in Holy Writ that a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without the notice of Divine Providence. How then can we expect a nation to arise without His aid also? I move, Sir, that prayers imploring the aid of Divine guidance be asked in this chamber every morning."

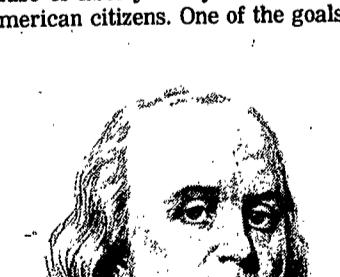

"This Constitution, Sir, is not all I hoped it to be, but the longer I live the more I have come to respect other men's opinions. For I have noticed, Sir, that when the joiner wishes to make a perfect joint he wishes to plane a little from each plank in order to bring them together in a tight and perfect joint. Let us emulate his prudence. Let each of us be willing to give up some of our cherished opinions for the good of the whole. For what we need in these debates is light—not heat.

This plea for harmony had its successful effects and there were compromises so that our constitution

Car owners warned not to leave keys in vehicle

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

A recent series of car thefts and recovery of stolen vehicles in Bay St. Louis is believed to be some type of a trade-off for people needing transportation between Bay St. Louis and Gulfport.

Bay St. Louis Detective David Murtagh believes someone is just going back and forth because the vehicles are not being taken for profit or to be stripped.

So far, four vehicles have been reported stolen from parking lots in Bay St. Louis. Three of them have been recovered and three of them had keys in the car when it was stolen.

The first car reported stolen was taken from the MarkeTown Shopping Center. This vehicle is a 1981 Toyota pickup and was recovered the following day in North Gulfport by the Harrison County Sheriff's Department.

Three vehicles which were stolen from Harrison County have also been recovered in Bay St. Louis.

"I strongly suggest people keep their vehicle keys on their person and not leave them in the ignition," Murtagh said.

He also requested anyone observing a person lurking around parking lots or looking into several cars to call the police department at 467-9221.

Virginia Thomas, is really glad she changed her mind about going.

"I started not to go because of what we had heard about the crowds and the weather but decided to go anyway and am glad I did," she said.

"It was such a thrill I just can't hardly believe it was the pope, I had a better view than if I had been in Rome," she said.

Thomas said the mass had a sort of "subdued carnival atmosphere."

"It was very hot but no one seemed to mind and then when it started to rain it was still all right," she added.

Thomas said an example of the good and caring atmosphere at the mass was indicated by the people who closed their umbrellas, in spite of the pouring rain, so everyone behind them in the crowd could see the pope.

"I was on Cloud Nine the whole time and just think I almost didn't go," she said.

Thomas also said her brother-in-law, William Thomas of New Orleans, who had reserved seats just three rows from the altar, told her the pope had tears in his eyes during the musical segment of the mass including the song by Fountain.

Diamondhead resident Hilda Bourg says one of the most impressive things to her 14-year-old son was the "pope-mobile" made by Mercedes Benz and complete with gold trim.

"It was very hot but no one seemed to mind and then when it started to rain it was still all right," she added.

Bourg also said it was very surprising to be in the midst of such a crowd but not see any pushing or shoving or talking during the papal message.

"You can't imagine what a strange feeling it is to be in the middle of all those and no one to be talking," she said.

"It was like everyone was content with the way they were from the minute the pope started talking," she added.

Both Bourg and Thomas commented on the "miraculous" way the rain stopped immediately when the pope began to say mass.

Support of the Constitution did not come easy. Thomas Jefferson drew up the Bill of Rights (the first 10 amendments to the Constitution). This document has proven adequate through these two hundred years. With the addition of amendments it is recognized for its precision in meeting the demand of a growing democracy.

For 42 years Benjamin Franklin gave all of his efforts to his country. In his declining years he wrote an epitaph intended to be used as his grave marker.

A similar problem was reported at a boat launch construction site in Napoleon, now part of NASA's buffer zone.

Cuevas said that during the weekend he found that a barrier placed across the entrance of the Napoleon site had been removed.

"It's not even completed and we still have people camping, littering, fishing and launching boats. We cabled the front and they tore the cable down," Cuevas said.

"We put four loads of sand down in front of the one at Pearlington and they ran over it," he added.

According to Board Attorney Gerald Gex, the area must be posted with signs designating it as not being open to the public. He suggested "Under Construction" or "No Trespassing" signs.

Once the area is so designated, the county has the authority, through its law enforcement agencies, to keep people from entering the site until it is opened to the public.

The next edition of "Mississippi Concert Hall" will feature a variety of classical pieces by Mississippi musicians. It will be broadcast on PRM at 9 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 17, and 1 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 20.

First, Nancy Osman conducts the Delta State University Chorale in Sanctus by Antonio Lotti. This was recorded at the USM Conductors Conference in Hattiesburg.

The Meridian Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Vernon Raines, is featured in Mendelssohn's Overture to The Beautiful Melusine.

For the conclusion, Jerrie Cadet Lucktenberg, faculty violinist at the University of Southern Mississippi, is featured in three pieces by Fritz Kreisler: "Praeludium" and "Allegro," Gluck's "Melodie" and "Tambourin Chinois."

No tax increase for Bay St. Louis this year

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

In a special meeting Tuesday the Bay St. Louis City Council set the millage for the 1988 fiscal year at the same amount as last year.

This means there will be no tax increase for Bay St. Louis residents this year.

The total millage for both the municipal and the school levy is 69.7 and should generate approximately $2.6 million.

This amount will almost be divided evenly between municipal and school funds.

The municipal levy remains exactly the same as the previous year with funding for each area staying the same.

Of the 30.85 municipal levy, 19.85 is used for the city's general fund. The library receives one mil; parks and playgrounds, 1.85 mils; bond fund, 5.25 mils; and sanitary sewer system, 2.9 mils.

The distribution of funding in the school levy is different from last year but the bottom line figures will remain the same.

The school fund tax levy increased from 1.3 to 5.3 mils and the short term loan funds decreased from three mils to 1.1.

Last year there were two short fall levies totalling 5.4 but both of these were eliminated this year.

Minimum program funding remained at the same level and district maintenance increased from 27.6 to 30.95.

The total school levy is 38.85 mils.

City Clerk Edward Favre said the council was very pleased the millage levied remained at the same level.

The council also complimented the school district on its cooperation and assistance in working out a solution to minimize the tax impact on the public, Favre said.

Bells Across America

The Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution is calling on all Americans, especially organizations, institutions and industries to join in a "ringing tribute to the Constitution" on Thursday at 3 p.m., the time of the actual signing of the Constitution 200 years ago.

To commemorate this historic moment, the Bicentennial Commission is asking everyone with bells, chimes and carillons, to sound them for 200 seconds, beginning at 3 p.m.

During this "ringing tribute" all organizations are encouraged to join the celebration by releasing 200 red, white and blue helium-filled balloons.

During the 200 seconds, Americans should reflect on the blessings of liberty, the ideals of justice and equal opportunity made possible by the Constitution. An official Bicentennial certificate suitable for framing will be given to participating groups.

For further information and to notify the Commission of your participation in "Bells Across America" write to: Bells Across America, Commission on the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution, 736 Jackson Place, N.W., Washington, DC.

High school football fans could not have asked for more excitement than was shown in the St. Stanislaus-St. John game last Friday night.

The highly ranked Eagles fell to the Rock-A-Chaws with under eight second left in the game on the accuracy of the toe of Mike Vegas as he kicked a field goal giving Stanislaus a one point victory.

The final score was St. Stanislaus 22 and St. John 21.

It was a come-from-behind victory for the Rocks who trailed the Eagles 21-12 with under ten minutes remaining in the contest.

It was a team effort which propelled St. Stanislaus to victory over a much superior opponent.

Stanislaus will again be home on Friday when they host Mercy Cross at Rock-A-Chaw stadium.

Last Friday's victory has to be a good one for head coach Ken Lyons and he will be hoping the Rocks will keep rolling.

Head-coach Cleveland Williams got his Bay High Tigers going last Friday by defeating Pass Christian 55-0.

The Tigers on Friday will play host to Pearl River Central's Blue Devils.

The Blue Devils fell to Hancock North Central last week 21-6 and will be trying to get back into the win column.

Bay High needs to be prepared for PRC and play the way they did last week in shutting out the Pirates.

Pass Christian will be seeking victory number one on Friday when they host St. Martin's Yellow Jackets.

The Pirates, who are apparently rebuilding this season will have to come up with some playing above their heads to defeat the Yellow Jackets.

Irvin Favre's Hawks of Hancock North Central remain undefeated this season with two victories.

This Friday the Hawks have an open date and will be resting for future games.

The Coast Episcopal Raiders will host the Bible Baptist Conquerors from North Gulfport on their home turf in Pass Christian Saturday with kickoff at 2 p.m.

The Raiders also will be seeking their first win in three games.

Take time to support your high school football team. Remember, they need good fan support.

Kickoffs for the Friday evening games are at 7:30 p.m.

News from

Governor Bill Allain

During the recently concluded special session of the Legislature, we asked lawmakers to appropriate some $27 million to education and economic development. They agreed, and these funds were made available to help meet dire needs at our state institutions.

While many Mississippians know that the Legislature approved spending this money, few know why we suddenly had extra money available. Cautious spending on the part of the Legislature, an improved economic picture in our state and more employment have led Mississippi to its best financial condition in a number of years.

The September meeting of the state's Fiscal Management Board showed that these good trends are continuing as we near the end of the year. The new fiscal year for the state began on July 1. In just the first two months of this "new" year, our state's tax collections are already some $12.5 million over the estimate for collections.

What does this mean? It means that the state is on the right track for providing services for our people without tax increases. It means that many of the programs that we and the Legislature have worked hard to enact are starting to pay off. It means that the future is very bright in our state.

Just to give you a comparison. When we came into office four years ago, the cash balance in the general fund and other accounts was something like $10 million. As we face leaving office in three and one-half months, the balance in these accounts will approach $100 million. That's a pretty good cushion for the new Governor and Legislature.

When we came into office, we did not have a rainy day fund or a stabilization reserve fund. As we leave office, these two funds have millions of dollars in them to protect the state from emergencies.

These changes in fiscal procedures for our state have not captured headlines in the past four years, but they have made a big difference in the manner in which the next Governor and Legislature will be able to conduct business.

These cash balances and remaining funds are proof that every Governor, legislator, and elected of-

POISON IVY

Q: How can my family and I enjoy the great outdoors without encountering poisonous plants such as poison ivy?

A: The most common "poisonous" plant, poison ivy, is neither poison nor ivy. It's a member of the cashew family, and its sap contains a sticky, clear substance called urushiol (pronounced oo-ROO-she-all) that causes an allergic reaction in most people.

Poison ivy is found in most areas of the U.S. It's only reliable characteristic is that it grows in pointy leaves of three. The leaves vary in length from one to five inches and may be smooth or hairy.

In spring and summer the leaves are glossy and may bear small white flowers. In fall, the plants are pink, yellow, or scarlet and have occasional berries.

Poison ivy plants grow low to the ground as well as in shrubs and vines. Although they grow best in the woods, they can show up anywhere—even on the edge of your lawn.

Discussion of poison ivy in this column applies to poison oak and sumac as well, which also contain urushiol and cause allergic reactions.

Poison oak grows mainly in the west, particularly California. Its appearance is as variable as that of poison ivy—only its leaves are oak-shaped.

Poison sumac forms a shrub or small tree and doesn't grow in leaves of three. Instead, its bright green, pointy leaves are arranged in pairs along a red axis. Poison sumac, found in damp, marshy areas in the east, is a much less common cause of allergy than poison ivy or oak.

Every year, some 10 million people in the U.S. have allergic reactions to poison ivy, oak, or sumac. Allergies occur most often in the summer because people are outside more and usually are bare-legged.

Four of every five people are allergic to these plants. Even those who were resistant and played blithely in patches of poison ivy as a child, may become allergic as an adult.

When urushiol soaks into your skin, your body's efforts to fight it causes allergic dermatitis in the shape of blisters, sores, and itching. Urushiol is very powerful. The amount contained in the size of a pinhead is enough to cause dermatitis in 500 people.

You can have an allergic reaction without touching a poison ivy plant, because the sap sticks to clothes, tools, or hiking boots and may persist for days or years.

Most animals aren't affected by poison ivy, but if they have urushiol on their skin they can transmit it to you. You also can suffer an allergic reaction by breathing the fumes of burning poison ivy.

Dermatitis from poison ivy is not contagious because the symptoms are spread only by contact with urushiol. If you have a rash or blisters from poison ivy but have no urushiol on your hands or body, you'll not spread the condition to others.

The best way to avoid contact with poison ivy is to beware of unfamiliar plants with leaves of three, and to wear long pants and long sleeves for your adventures in the woods.

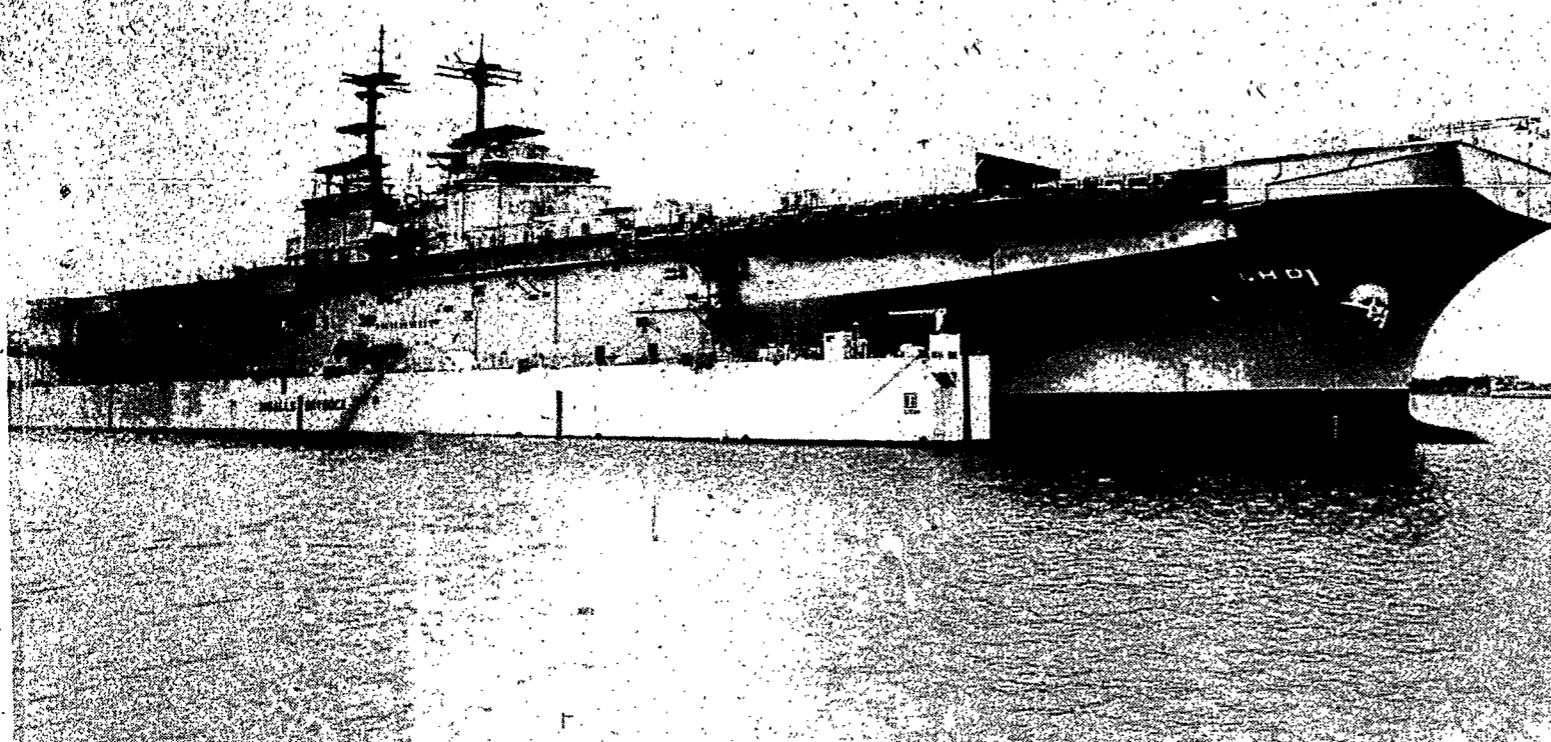

If you have encountered poison ivy during an outdoor excursion, remove and discard your clothing when you get home and wash your skin with rubbing alcohol and then a strong soap for 10 minutes to make sure the urushiol is gone. It has likely done its damage, but thorough washing may prevent further spreading.

Symptoms usually appear within a few hours or a few days after exposure. These include headache, rash, itching, burning, and swelling of the skin—and sometimes a fever.

The discomfort may last as long as 10 days. To soothe the itching, soak the affected area in cold water. Put baking soda in the bath water. Try not to scratch. If the symptoms are severe, your doctor may prescribe cortisone or other ointments.

READY FOR LAUNCH—The lead ship in the Navy's newest multipurpose assault ship program, WASP (LHD 1), sits in a floating drydock at Ingalls Shipbuilding division of Litton in Pascagoula, just moments before floating

Navy/Marine Corps Team's newest amphibious assault ship to be christened Saturday at Ingalls

PASCAGOULA—The lead ship in the new LHD 1 Class of multipurpose amphibious assault ships will be christened "Wasp" Saturday at Ingalls Shipbuilding.

The general public is invited to the 11 a.m. ceremony at the company's facilities on the west bank of the Pascagoula River.

Principal speaker for the ceremony will be Vice Admiral William P. Lawrence, U.S. Navy Retired, former Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

His wife, Mrs. Diane Wilcox Lawrence, has been chosen by the Navy as LHD 1's sponsor, and will break the traditional bottle of champagne across the new ship's bow.

Mrs. Marguerite Coffret Rauch, of North Starington, Conn., and Captain Laurie Lawrence Deneke, a U.S. Army physician stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., will serve as matrons of honor for the ceremony.

Lieutenant Wendy B. Lawrence, a U.S. Navy helicopter pilot stationed in Belmont, Mass., will serve as maid of honor.

Captain Deneke and Lieutenant Lawrence are daughters of Admiral and Mrs. Lawrence. Mrs. Rauch is the couple's daughter-in-law.

Other participants in Saturday's christening ceremony will include Vice Admiral William F. McCauley, USN, commander, Naval Surface Force, U.S. Atlantic Fleet; Lieutenant General Anthony Lukeman, USMC, deputy assistant secretary of defense, Military Manpower and Personnel Policy; E. E. Shoultz, Amphibious Warfare and Strategic Sealift program manager, Naval Sea Systems Command; Captain Michael G. Simpson, USN, supervisor of Shipbuilding, Conversion and Repair, Pascagoula; and Jerry St. Pe', senior vice president of Litton and president of Ingalls Shipbuilding.

Reverend Robert L. Kates, senior pastor of Pascagoula's First Methodist Church, will deliver the invocation.

The 40,500 ton amphibious assault ship has the primary mission of embarkation, deployment, landing, and support of a Marine landing force. Wasp is 444 long with a beam of 106 feet. Two steam propulsion plants, developing a combined 70,000 horsepower, will drive the ship at speeds in excess of 20 knots.

In carrying out this mission, LHD 1 will mount an assault of helicopters, landing craft and other amphibious vehicles in various combinations. The Wasp Class is the first specifically designed to accommodate the air cushion landing craft (LCAC) and Harrier II (AV-8B) STOVL (Short Takeoff/Vertical Landing) jets, which will provide close-in air support of the assault force. The ship will also accommodate the full range of Navy and Marine Corps helicopters, conventional landing craft and amphibious vehicles.

Outfitted for her primary mission, Wasp will carry a mix of assault helicopters, plus six to eight Harriers. The ship will be fully capable of maintaining its aircraft and landing craft, as well as supporting the embarked landing force squadron.

LHD 1 will have more than 22,000 square feet of vehicle space and 100,000 cubic feet of cargo space.

Accommodations for nearly 3,000 troops and crew members (the crew numbers 98 officers and 983 enlisted personnel) are provided in the ship's living areas.

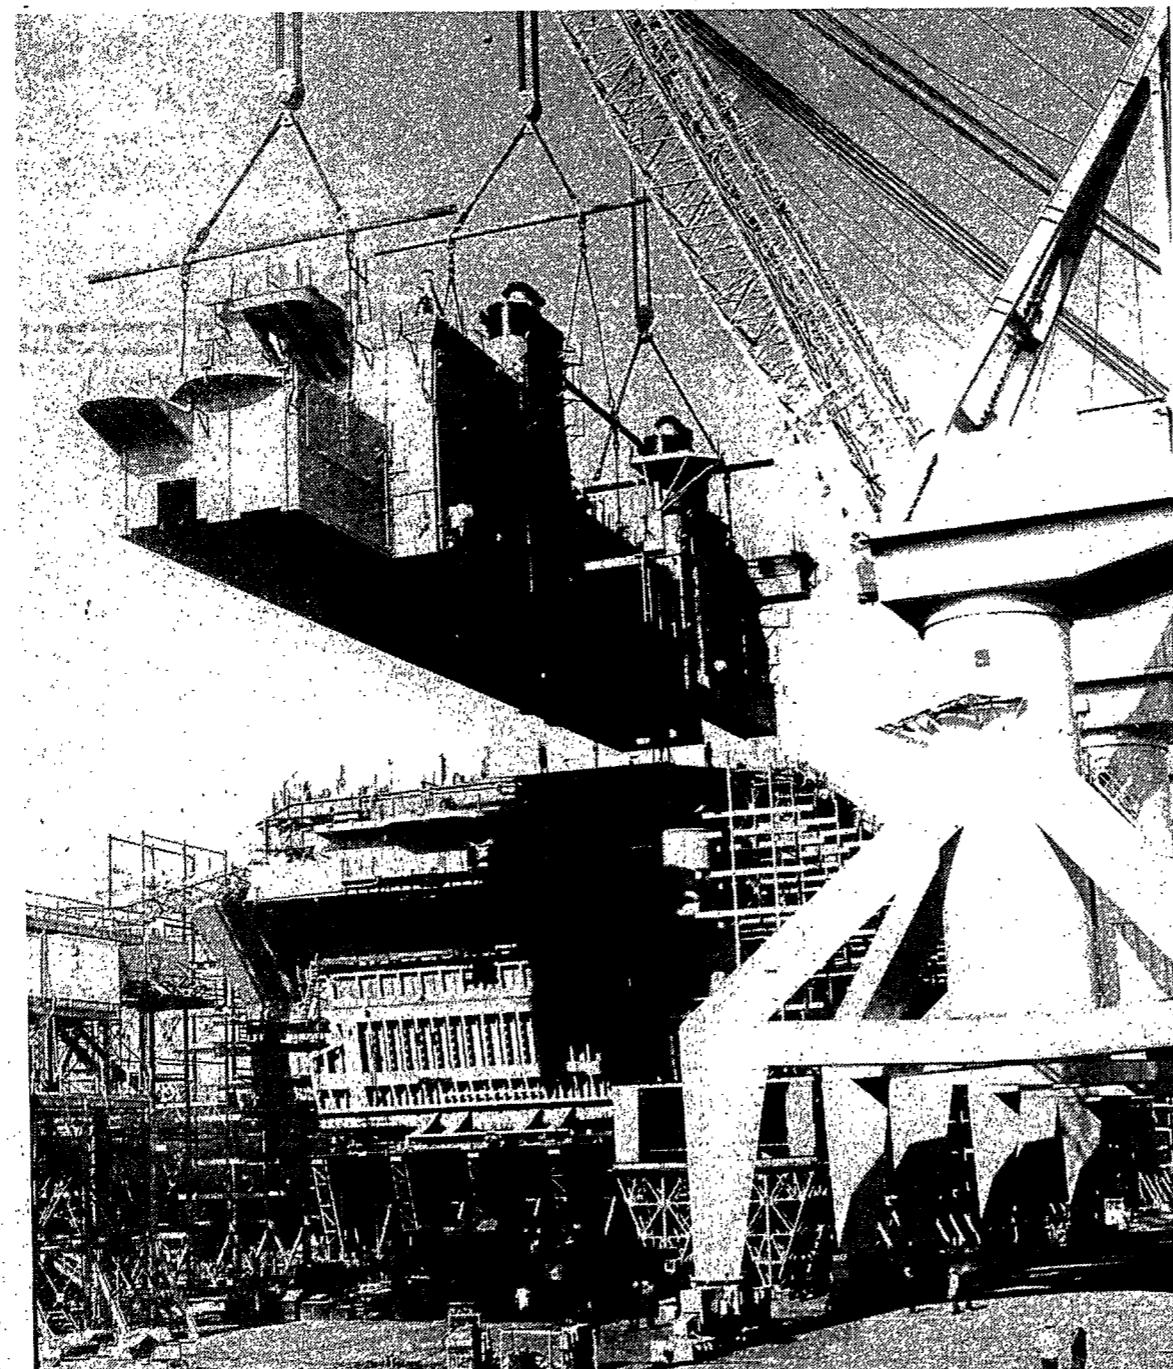

For combat support, as well as humanitarian missions, LHD 1 will have six fully-equipped operating rooms and a 600-bed hospital.

The new ship will join the Navy in early 1989.

In addition to building Wasp, the lead ship of the new class, Ingalls has a contract to build the second ship, Essex (LHD 2), as well as construction options with the Navy for LHDs 3 and 4.

Lead shipbuilder for five of the latest classes of U.S. Navy surface combatants, Ingalls Shipbuilding has delivered 49 major surface warships to the Navy's Fleets since 1975.

In addition to the Wasp Class, Ingalls is currently lead shipbuilder for the Ticonderoga (CG 47) Class of Aegis guided missile cruisers, and the Navy's second source shipyard for Arleigh Burke (DDG 51) Aegis guided missile destroyers. The shipyard is also reactivating and modernizing the World War II battleship Wisconsin (BB-64), and repairing the guided missile frigate USS Stark (FFG 31).

WASP SUPERSTRUCTURE—The 493-ton superstructure assembly is lifted past the stern of WASP (LHD 1) at Ingalls Shipbuilding division of Litton in Pascagoula, while being landed aboard ship. Ingalls built LHD 1 in four preoutfitted hull modules, which were moved together and welded out before the superstructure was set in place. (Ingalls Shipbuilding photo)

Kickers, runners top weekly trophy winners

By EDGAR H. PEREZ

Two kicking specialists and three ball carriers are the winners of Player of the Week honors in weekend high school football action.

Loiacano's Health Club in Bay St. Louis and Rick's Trophies in Waveland sponsor the program which each week recognizes an outstanding individual effort on the part of a player from each of this area's five high schools.

Mike Vegas of St. Stanislaus and Jason Peterson of the Pass Christian Pirates are the kickers who are cited this week for exceptional play.

Vegas posted an extra point on the scoreboard for the Rockchaws and kicked a game-winning field goal with eight seconds left in Friday night's game in Bay St. Louis to give the Rocks a 22-21 victory over the highly-touted St. John Eagles.

Peterson is credited with bailing out the ill-fated Pirates with six punts averaging 33 yards each. He also turned in a strong defensive effort with six solo tackles.

Running backs who earned the Player of the Week trophies from the remaining three schools are tailback Rea Montjoy of Coast Episcopal Raiders, Donald Vince of Hancock North Central Hawks and fullback Brian Laneaux of the Bay High Tigers.

In Hancock's 21-6 win over the Pearl River Central Blue Devils Friday night, Vince, a senior fullback, carried 12 times for a total of 143 yards, including a 95-yard touchdown run.

Montjoy, a junior at CEHS, picked up 55 yards rushing against a larger Cornerstone Academy team from Baton Rouge Saturday afternoon in Pass Christian.

He also is credited with nine unassisted tackles in the Raiders' 41-0 loss to Cornerstone.

Laneaux racked up five touchdowns and 167 yards rushing in the Tigers' 55-0 trouncing of the Pirates Friday.

Laneaux's touchdowns came on runs of six, ten, ten, 34 and seven yards, respectively.

On defense he intercepted one Pirate pass, brought down the Pass runner four times unassisted and was in on eight other tackles.

Wildcats licking wounds before Booneville trip

The Pearl River college Wildcats will have little time to lick their wounds this week as a long trip to Northeast is on tap for Thursday.

The Wildcats were upset 13-6 by rival Jones Saturday night in Laurel.

This week the Mike Nelson-led 'Cats will have to travel to Booneville to take on the Tigers, a team which handed Jones a 14-3 opening season loss.

"Our offense this past week was pathetic," said Coach Nelson. "We made too many mental mistakes and bad choices."

The Wildcats' offense, which racked up 58 points against Coahoma during the first game of the season, turned the ball over seven times against Jones.

One of the four pass interceptions was returned for a touchdown and one of the three lost fumbles was recovered in the end zone for another six points.

Altogether the Wildcat offense fumbled seven times and, according to Nelson, the veteran unit missed blocking assignment after assignment.

"Our miserable showing against Jones made all our games down the road that much more important," said Nelson.

The bright spot of the Wildcats this past week was the play of the defensive unit. "We played well defensively," Nelson said. "I was really pleased with the second unit."

The Wildcats gave up only 100 yards in total offense. The 'Cats' defensive unit has not been scored on this year.

"The big win against Coahoma was our downfall," said Nelson. "That game did not give us a true look at some of our people under pressure. If we had been tested in that first game, we probably would have made some changes."

"Nelson is making a number of changes for this week's contest. Thurman Geathers, the 'Cats' star running back, was lost for at least three weeks. He left the Jones game after injuring his left knee for the second time in as many weeks."

Geathers was scheduled to have orthoscopic surgery Tuesday morning. Nelson said he expects Geathers to be ready in two or three weeks.

The PRC offense this week will not resemble the starting unit of the past two Saturdays. Scott Nease will start at quarterback, replacing Chris Collins and defensive back Tevin Williams will be moved from defensive corner to the starting wingback.

Roland Johnson will be moved from fullback to running back, while Jerry Rush will move from wingback to the fullback position.

"I like what I saw Sunday night," Nelson said. "Again, if we had been under pressure during week one, I may have made these changes for the Jones ballgame."

The Wildcats will not have much time to get the offense in gear as they will leave Wednesday for Booneville and Thursday's game against Northeast.

"Northeast has a pretty good ball club," Nelson said. "They beat Jones 14-3 and tied Holmes this past week 7-7. We'll have our hands full."

The game is set for Thursday at 6:30 p.m. The game will be broadcast over Lumberton's WLUN-FM 95.3 and WRMH-FM 106.3 in Picayune.

OFFENSE BLAMED

Wildcat defensive unit gave up a mere 100 yards in total offense Saturday night and did not allow the

Jones offense to penetrate its end zone.

The Bobcats were allowed just 91 yards rushing and only nine yards passing, but the Jones offense didn't have to muster much as its defense scored on an interception and fumble recovery in the PRC end-zone.

Pearl River's offense, which racked up 58 points against Coahoma just last Saturday, never got on track as quarterback Chris Collins was intercepted four times, including the errant pass Steven Peavy picked off for a 27-yard score.

Later in the third quarter the Wildcats' Charles Burton fumbled on the five and the ball rolled into the end zone where Spencer Moncrief recovered for a score.

"I don't know what the stats look like and I don't care," Cooley said after his Bobcats avenged last year's 45-0 Pearl River demolition. "We've been waiting a whole year for this. I'll take it (victory) anyway I can get it."

Jones improves to 1-1 overall and 1-0 in the South Division while Pearl River falls to 1-1 and 0-1.

Pearl River head coach Mike Nelson placed the blame on his defense.

"We just didn't do a good job offensively," Nelson said. "Our quarterbacks did not do a good job. I'm disappointed in them. We've got some things to straighten out on offense."

"Our defense did a good job. I thought they had a good game."

Pearl River got its initial first down of the game with 6:59 left in the opening quarter on a 20-yard pass from quarterback Chris Collins to tightend Chris Hoz.

Two plays later, Collins rolled out and dropped a short pass to Hattiesburg freshman fullback Roland Johnson, who turned the corner and raced into the end zone when corner-back Spencer Moncrief missed a tackle.

Joey Tatum's extra point attempt missed wide right.

Jones might not have gotten on the scoreboard if not for its defense.

Defensive back Peavy of Northeast Jones picked off a Collins pass and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown. Shawn Mercer's extra point gave the Bobcats the lead for good.

Jones' defense added an insurance score with 3:08 left in the third quarter when Moncrief pounced on the Burton fumble for a touchdown. Mercer's extra point was blocked.

With time running out, the Wildcats tried to put together a scoring drive, but each time the Jones defense met the challenge.

Linebacker Greg Jones sacked Collins for a 13-yard loss on second-and-10 from the PRC 43 and the Wildcats had to punt.

Early in the fourth period, Moncrief picked off another Collins pass.

With less than three minutes remaining in the game, Pearl River got the break it appeared to need when Matt Fairconnetue fielded a Tim Hollinghead punt on one bounce, turned against the grain and raced 33 yards with it. Steve Howze saved the game for Jones with a one-handed tackle at the Bobcat 21.

But on first down, Greg Jones and Sidney Poitier threw Jerry Rush for a 10-yard loss.

Then facing fourth-and-2 from the 13, quarterback Charles Kindred mishandled the snap, recovered and dove forward, but was stopped inches short.

Pass aiming for respectability through 100 percent effort

Only players willing to give 100 percent effort will be on the field playing for the Pass Christian Pirates Friday night against the St. Martin Yellow Jackets.

"The team has got to fight back and never quit to have success this week and any player not giving 100 percent every time the ball is snapped will be warming on the bench," Head Coach Alton Wright said Wednesday.

If the team gives what they can, they can have some measure of success whether it is a win or staying with St. Martin, Wright added.

"If we can play respectfully and stay with St. Martin we have a chance to win the game at the end," he said.

"And especially if they overlook us, we can win because anybody on a given night can win any game," Wright continued.

Wright said one thing which has plagued the Pirates is injured players and it "really hurts to lose two or three running backs at one time."

"These key injured players leave us in the position of having only ninth and tenth grade running backs to play," he added.

This combined with the loss of several players who have quit has given the Pirates the chance to start over fresh.

"Those players who show up for practice and really go after it will be the one's playing Friday night," he said.

The Pirates will be running a "little option with misdirection and a short passing game" to offset the St. Martin offense, Wright said.

"We have also added a few things we hope will work and are hoping to have a good game all the way until the final whistle blows," Wright said.

Rocks 7th and 8th Grade follows varsity lead, defeats St. John 6-0

The St. Stanislaus Rockachaws 7th and 8th grade football team defeated the St. John Eagles 7th and 8th grade squad 6-0 in a contest played Monday evening at Milner Stadium in Gulfport.

SSC took the opening kickoff and marched down the field in a 66 yard scoring drive, capped by quarterback Mickey Quinlan's 10 yard scoring run around the right end.

This turned out to be the only score of the game. St. John's offense held the ball the entire third quarter and part of the fourth quarter, but the Rockachaw defense did not allow them to score.

SSC's defense was led by defensive end Mike David, linebacker Tate Thriffiley, and cornerback Mike Lee. Rusty Necaise had a big interception earlier in the game to stop an Eagle drive.

The hard running of Jason Lojacano and Mickey Quinlan were the offensive highlights for the Rocks. Offensive linemen James Necaise and Mark Sherwin opened wide holes for the Rockachaw running backs. Tate Thriffiley also had a good offensive blocking game at center.

Late in the game, St. John tried a desperation halfback pass, but SSC cornerback Mike Lee knocked down the pass.

"Overall, our team played exceptionally well. However, we do have a few things to improve on for our next game," said Coach Eddie Burgo. Also coaching the SSC 7th and 8th graders are Chuck Genin and Mick Quinlan.

Next Tuesday the Rocks travel to Pass Christian to play the Pirates 7th and 8th grade team. Kickoff is set for 6:30 p.m.

CEHS Raiders seeking first win

The Cornerstone Academy Cardinals from Baton Rouge visited the Coast Episcopal Raiders on Saturday and treated them to a dose of hard-nosed, run-oriented football in handing the Raiders their second loss of the season 41-0.

The Raiders' young defense could not stop a much larger, experienced Cardinal offensive unit which dominated the game.

The Raiders managed a hard fought 147 yards total offense; 123 on the ground and 24 through the air—but could not put the ball in the end zone.

A much larger Cardinal team ran up the middle for 88 yards and around the ends for 116 yards and coupled with 74 yards through the air for a total of 278 yards and six touchdowns.

Quarterback Chris Riggs managed two completions out of four passes for 24 yards but had tremendous pressure the whole game, being sacked four times.

His scrambling did net 15 yards though while Rae Montjoy had 55 tough yards and David Williams, a freshman tailback had 14 yards.

Jason Evans who had just been moved to fullback, had 36 yards up the middle.

Defensive bright spots for the Raiders included Mike Kergosien, Rae Montjoy, Johnny Mount, and Bill Guice, all with nine tackles, while Jamie Ladner had 8 and Chris Riggs six.

Saturday the Raiders host the Bible Baptist Conquerors from North Gulfport. Game time is 2 p.m.

USM baseball schedule released

HATTIESBURG—The University of Southern Mississippi baseball team will play a 10-game fall schedule, according to coach Hill Denson and athletic director Bill McLellan.

"Because of some NCAA changes we, along with everyone else, have been forced to adapt our fall football. We'll put very little emphasis on winning and will use as many players as possible each game. We'll also bring in several junior college teams and give them a chance to play on our campus."

The fall season starts Sept. 29 at home against Meridian Junior College and ends Oct. 18 at home

The complete schedule includes:
Day	Date	Opponent	Site	Time
Tues.	Sept. 29	Meridian JC	Home	2:00
Wed.	Sept. 30	East Miss. JC	Home	2:00
Thurs.	Oct. 1	Jones JC	Home	2:00
Mon.	Oct. 5	William Carey	Away	5:00
Wed.	Oct. 7	Co-Lin JC	Home	2:00
Thurs.	Oct. 8	Hinds CC	Home	2:00
Tues.	Oct. 13	Livingston	New Hope, MS	7:00
Thurs.	Oct. 15	Gulf Coast JC	Home	2:00
Fri.	Oct. 16	Pearl River JC	Home	2:00
Sun.	Oct. 18	Miss. Delta JC	Home	2:00

scheduling somewhat," said Denson.

"The NCAA now allows you to play 70 total (fall and spring) games and since we will play 60 in the spring each year that left us only the 10 to use in the fall."

"We will use the fall schedule as a training session very similar to spr-

Thriffiley termed 'bright spot'

Millsaps College Majors will put their unbeaten 2-0 record on the line against the also unbeaten Sewanee Tigers (1-0) Saturday afternoon at Alumni Field in Jackson.

Kickoff is 1:30 p.m.

At their last meeting Millsaps defeated Sewanee 14-12 in Tennessee.

Last week, The Majors defeated Union College by a score of 31-9. Millsaps compiled 391 yards of total offense while limiting the Bulldogs to 263 total yards.

Leading the way for Millsaps was fullback Jerry Leonard, who rushed 15 times for 113 yards and two touchdowns.

One of Leonard's touchdowns came on a 44-yard run in the fourth quarter.

Also scoring touchdowns for Millsaps were freshmen Buddy Bass and Mike Brown. Bass, a tailback, scored on a five-yard run while Brown, a wingback, caught a 35-yard pass from splintered Darrin Estes early in the second quarter.

Other bright spots for Millsaps included tailback Todd Thriffiley and fullback Andy Mansukhani. Thriffiley, a sophomore, had 12 rushes for 74 yards and a long run of 25 yards.

Mansukhani has six rushes for 51 yards and leads the team with a 7.8-yard-per-rush average.

Quarterback Rusty Davis had a 31-yard scramble to go along with his 48 yards in the air on 5-12 passing.

Division III leader Darrin Estes had eight punts for a 42.4-yard average, including two punts downed inside Union's five-yard line.

Estes' punting statistics through two games show a 45.7-yard average on 12 punts. Placekicker Doug Greene connected for a 18-yard field goal and was successful on all four extra-point conversions.

The Major defense limited the visitors from Kentucky to 25 yards rushing on 23 carries. Union quarterback Greg Duncan was 21-40 for 238 yards with one touchdown.

Heading Millsap's defensive effort were linebackers Clay Ranager and Tommy Ponder. Ranager, a senior, had 11 solo tackles and three assists while Ponder contributed nine tackles, four assists and two sacks.

Defensive backs Sam Fields and defensive lineman Scott Green each recovered one fumble while defensive end Chuck Clayton recorded two sacks. Strong safety Aubrey Falls had the lone interception for Millsaps to go along with four tackles and three assists.

Other Majors to watch: WB Chris Hemphill, three catches, 51 yards; DB Bob Herrell, eight tackles, 1 assist; FB Andy Mansukhani, 16 rushes, 124 yards; and WB Mike Brown, two catches 41 yards, one TD.

The Bay St. Louis Senior High Tigers will try for their second victory of the season Friday night as they face the Pearl River Central Blue Devils in a home game at J.D. McCullough Field.

According to Bay Head Coach Cleve Williams, the Tigers, who had a 55-0 victory over Pass Christian last week, will be facing a tough opponent.

Pearl River Central has a lot of quickness on their ballclub, Williams explained. "They move quick off the ball, stunts and slants."

Size may be a factor in the game as well as speed. The Blue Devils have an average weight of 165 to 190 pounds, the coach added.

A few specific Pearl River players may give the Tigers some trouble, Williams said while watching a videotape of last week's Blue Devil game against the Hancock North Central Hawks.

He said that Pearl River Central's offense relies basically on passing but is capable of running the ball as well.

Their passing ability is helped by a quarterback who Williams said "is a good scrambler and throws deep" and by the talents of a split end.

"They throw to him quite a bit and we know he has good hands," the coach said of the opponent's receiver.

The Blue Devils' versatility is aided by speed. "Their No. 25 is rather quick out of the backfield," Williams added.

"Our work is cut out for us because we have to be prepared for a club that does more than run," he said of his own team.

"We can't afford to do a lot of changing on our defense but we will have to work on a few wrinkles to make our club a lot more solid on both run and pass support."

"Offensively, we are doing a lot of work on our squad because we need to be more aggressive physically and mentally prepared for the defensive fronts we must be able to adjust to," the coach added.

"We need to have a good game out of both of our backs, Brian Laneaux and Aaron Whavers, to be able to win. Right now, we are working hard on our aerial attack to take some pressure off our running game."

The Tigers will go into the game with a basically healthy team, Williams added. The only injured player this week is Buddy Bourne and Williams said it is "doubtful" whether Bourne will see any action Friday night.

Gametime Friday is 7:30 p.m.

Bassin' with the pros

Cookin' with topwater lures

Along with the doldrums of summer comes some fine fishing as the hot month of August passes into a cooler September. This is one time of year that you can cook with topwater lures.

According to the book Jackpot Bassin', a topwater plug is defined as follows: "Floating lures that can be made to gurgle, swim, bubble, or dart on the surface during retrieve." But like most definitions, it doesn't steer us toward any specific lures.

"Topwater baits are normally what I refer to as hard baits—as opposed to buzz baits—to fish across the water surface," states Ken Cook, Evinrude Outboards Pro Staff member. "In that category I put the Minnent Minnow or a Rapala. I use the Minnetonka twitch baits under a set of conditions with quiet water. You can work that sort of bait like a Rippin' Minnow with little twitches on top of the water or with a bill (lip) on it, and it can go down two to five feet. You can work it down by jerking it intermittently."

Cook prefers using a 5-inch lure, but on occasion goes to a 7-inch size if he's trying to catch larger bass. As far as coloration of the artificial bait, he tends to favor chrome with a black back or gold with a black back.

Ole Miss launches $8 million fundraiser

UNIVERSITY—University of Mississippi Chancellor Gerald Turner and former Rebel and NFL quarterback Archie Manning officially launched "The Drive for Athletics at Ole Miss" Friday.

The goal of the drive is to raise $8 million for capital improvements to Ole Miss athletic facilities.

"The time has come for us to build a foundation for the future," said Ole Miss Chancellor Gerald Turner. "We've never had a major drive for athletics before, but we've run on tradition and courage as long as we can. Now we have to provide the kind of facilities that our players need to compete in the Southeastern Conference."

The six goals of the drive include raising $1 million to complete construction of the new baseball stadium; $2.95 million to renovate Vaught-Hemingway Stadium; $2.5 million to construct a new indoor practice facility; $750,000 to add turf, bleachers and restrooms to the track; $400,000 to add an irrigation system and cart paths to the golf course; and $300,000 to add courts, bleachers and service buildings to the tennis complex.

These facilities, additions and renovations are long overdue, say Ole Miss officials, but there is no state funding available to pay for them. That's why Ole Miss is looking to the private sector for help.

"Over the past decade, our sister schools in the SEC have made tremendous investments in their athletic facilities, and the time has come for us to build facilities that are SEC quality," said Chancellor Turner. "We haven't asked our alumni and fans to help with this in the past, but we're asking now."

Contributions to the drive should be sent to: The Drive For Athletics, The University of Mississippi Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, MS 38677.

lures the pros favor; what retrieval technique can best be employed with them to provide greater success in catching bass?

"You usually end up with one of two retrieves," instructs Cook. "One is very, very slow—that is, you cast the lure near cover, let it sit for a while, and fish it real slow. The other retrieve that tends to work is very fast, say with a Zara Spook or Pop'R. You cast beyond the cover and get the bait to working in a zig-zagging pattern where it's flashing and go about the cover at a fairly rapid rate. That tends to trigger the bass."

As Cook emphasized, one of these two retrieves is normally the best, there's hardly a medium retrieve.

and orange belly.

"Those two colors I use about 90 percent of the time and under most conditions," Cook relates. "In slightly stained water, I usually use the gold with orange belly, and in real clear water I usually use a chrome with a black or blue back."

Now that we know what kind of

The key in the presentation of the lure is to make its action erratic.

OMC Parts & Accessories says its SST Raker stainless steel propeller was designed for bass boats and other high performance enthusiasts. The SST Raker features through-hub exhaust and three vent holes at the base of the hub for better acceleration. The SST Raker is available for many four, six and eight cylinder Johnson and Evinrude outboards and the new OMC Cobra stern drive.

St. Clare teachers adopt professional improvement

In an effort to refine teacher skills and to keep giving children the best education possible, Sr. Jane, principal of St. Clare School reports the faculty of St. Clare this year will be using the Master Teacher, a planned program of professional training designed to help educators maintain high professional standards and practices in the classroom and the school.

During the first semester, teachers will study specific topics in effective teaching techniques, motivation, discipline, grading and testing professionalism and ethics.

The program is also designed to improve the quality of teacher-to-teacher, teacher-to-student, and teacher-to-parent interaction at virtually every level of school activity.

The program is designed to meet three goals.

First, it helps teachers maintain and refine their positive and professional attitudes toward teaching and children. This includes remaining positive toward their work as classroom teachers as well as recognizing their contribution to the accomplishments of the entire school.

Second, the program strives to give each teacher something new and practical each week that can be applied immediately in his or her daily work with students.

Third, the program constantly helps to remind teachers of the principles of education which they already know but may forget to apply.

ly in working with students and getting the work of the school accomplished.

Sr. Jane said, "It's a changing world. And whatever one's life work, constant growth is necessary for continued effectiveness and success."

"Professional growth is a process of work and study that must begin on the first day of a career and be never-ending. That's why we use The Master Teacher program of staff development. It is distributed weekly throughout the school year, it covers the wide spectrum of teachers' needs, and it helps teachers refine the skills needed to be successful in today's classroom and school," she added.

Tutor training workshop slated by Gulfport

A free Tutor Training Workshop will be held in Room A-V03 at Gulfport High School on Saturday, Oct. 3 from 9 a.m. to noon.

"We will teach you what you need to know to teach another adult to read and write. We need at least 20 more tutors now. All books and materials are free to tutors and students," said Dr. Norris L. Williams, supervisor of Community Education for Gulfport School District.

More than 6,000 adults in Harrison County cannot read or write, and an additional 14,000 adults are functionally illiterate.

"We need your help to teach these individuals," Williams added.

"To enroll in the workshop, or if you know of someone or are someone who cannot read or has difficulty reading, contact Mrs. N. V. Williams, coordinator of the adult learning center, at 632-6757, or community education at 896-9014."

North Bay Elementary PTO opens school year with planning meet

North Bay Elementary PTO held its first function on Thursday, Aug. 27.

Gary Strom, president, welcomed the parents to the school and discussed the PTO's upcoming plans for the year.

The main goal of the PTO will be to buy a computer for each classroom.

Strom also introduced the PTO officers for the school year. Gary Yarborough, vice president; Mark Boston, treasurer; Mrs. Michele Morenco, secretary; Mrs. Aubrey Mueller, publicity chairperson; Mrs. Terry Brown, teacher interface; Mrs. Margie DiBenedetto, parent interface and parliamentarian.

The first PTO event for the year will be Halloween Carnival.

Mrs. Darlene Underwood, Hancock County home economist, gave a short talk on latch key children then showed a film on tips for latch key children.

Mrs. Judy Miller, first vice president of Bay St. Louis Junior Auxiliary's child-abuse awareness program, showed puppets used in the auxiliary's program and explained how they were used.

Mrs. Peggy Smith talked on a possible parenting class being formed and asked for phone numbers from interested parents.

Roger James, principal, welcomed the parents to the school and expressed his gratitude to the PTO for their contributions and time to the school.

The student body, the faculty, programs available at North Bay for the students, the longer school day, a physical education instructor, the new breakfast program were some of the items discussed by James.

James mentioned there would be a volunteer program starting in the school in October under the direction of Ms. JoAnn LaGasse.

There will also be an on-site inspection in February from the State Department of Education to inspect North Bay's Educational Program.

Dr. Roger Oge, superintendent of Bay St. Louis-Waveland School System, will be meeting in the future with the community to get both parental and community input for a formation of a student handbook.

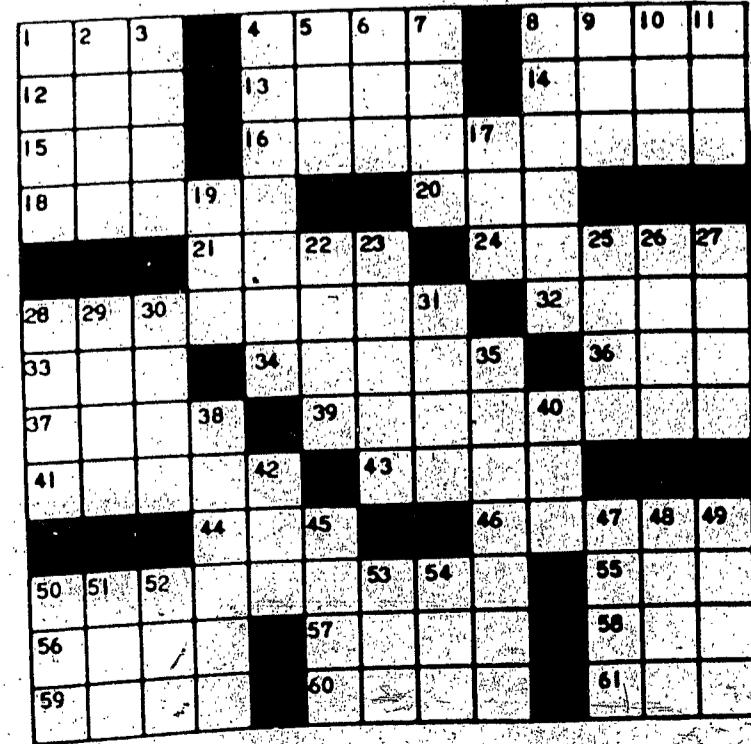

James also told the parents there will be certain days during the school year set up for parent-teacher conferences which will give all parents the opportunity to discuss their child's progress.

The Basic Skills test which will be given to grades 3, 5, 8, 11 and the kindergarten metropolitan tests were explained by James to the parents.

Refreshments were served to the parents after the meeting which allowed them the opportunity to meet informally.

Veteran teacher elected MAE president

The Mississippi Association of Educators (MAE), the state's biggest teachers' union, has elected Peggy Peterson president. She is a 20-year veteran in Mississippi's public schools on leave of absence from her sixth grade class at Bolier Elementary School in Decatur.

Peterson's focus, during her term as president of the 13,000 MAE, will be centered around an impending teacher shortage, garnering solid support for public schools, including making Mississippi teachers salaries competitive with those in surrounding states and helping to implement teacher evaluations at the local level.

"Not since the late 1950's, when early Soviet successes in space exploration thrust America into a superpower race for educational superiority has the call for qualified teachers been so great," says Peterson.

From Congress, from state legislators, from parent organizations and from individual citizens, "a common message in 1987 has rung strong and clear: America needs to attract and keep qualified teachers if it is to excel in an increasing competitive world," she adds.

Regrettably, a new survey conducted for the National Education Association shows that qualified teachers are in short supply. In fact, not only is the situation not getting better—it's getting worse.

For some large school districts, the NEA data shows, the search for qualified teachers will be more difficult this year than last.

Results already reveal 34,880 unfilled positions for the '87-'88 school year, a significant increase above the 32,000 vacancies reported last fall.

"Poll after poll has shown that the public wants fully qualified, thoroughly trained teachers in every classroom," Peterson points out.

"And the public recognizes that low salaries are one of the major reasons school districts have difficulty getting teachers."

Low salaries compounded with a record number of teachers retiring, and the number of certified teachers to take their places declining dramatically, will increase the national teacher shortage fourfold by 1992 assuming an annual six percent vacancy rate.

"Clearly, teacher salaries must be increased at all levels," notes Peterson, "to solve the teacher shortage crisis we face now, and will continue to face."

The average salary for a teacher with a masters degree and 15 years of experience is $26,847 nationally, $23,100 in the Southeast and $19,575 in Mississippi.

Only six states in the Southeast—Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Texas and Virginia—pay teachers more than the Southeast average salary.

"MAE wants Mississippi to be the number 1 state in education. The Mississippi Legislature understands the needs. Polls show that the public is willing to help, even willing to pay higher taxes—as is the business community—for better schools," Peterson adds.

Peterson, a concern for the entire community which ought to be concerned with the whole child.

"Mississippi schools are very good, but more can—and should—be done to improve them," Peterson continues.

The new Personnel Appraisal System calls for an annual evaluation of teachers. It is designed to improve instruction in the classroom unlike the ill-fated Mississippi Teachers Appraisal Instrument (MTAI) that lowered the morale of teachers last year.

The new Personnel Appraisal

System is consistent with MAE's long standing positions on evaluation:

—That evaluation systems are best developed at the local school district level by a committee which includes teachers.

—That teacher appraisals should be used to improve instruction rather than decide salaries.

—That an appeals process must be a part of any appraisal system.

"MAE will work with its local affiliates to insure that the new Personnel Appraisal System does what it was designed to do: improve instruction in the classroom," declares Peterson.

"We are extremely happy that the new policy mandates a written grievance procedure," concludes Peterson.

Bruce Barker, a senior at St. Stanislaus, has been named as a National Merit Semifinalist for the 1987-88 school session.

Merit semifinalists are among the highest scorers in each state on the 1987 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test and the national Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) which was administered to over one million students throughout the United States.

The semifinalists represent the top one-half of one percent of those taking the test on a nationwide basis; and they become eligible to be named as National Merit Finalists. These finalists will be announced in April, 1988.

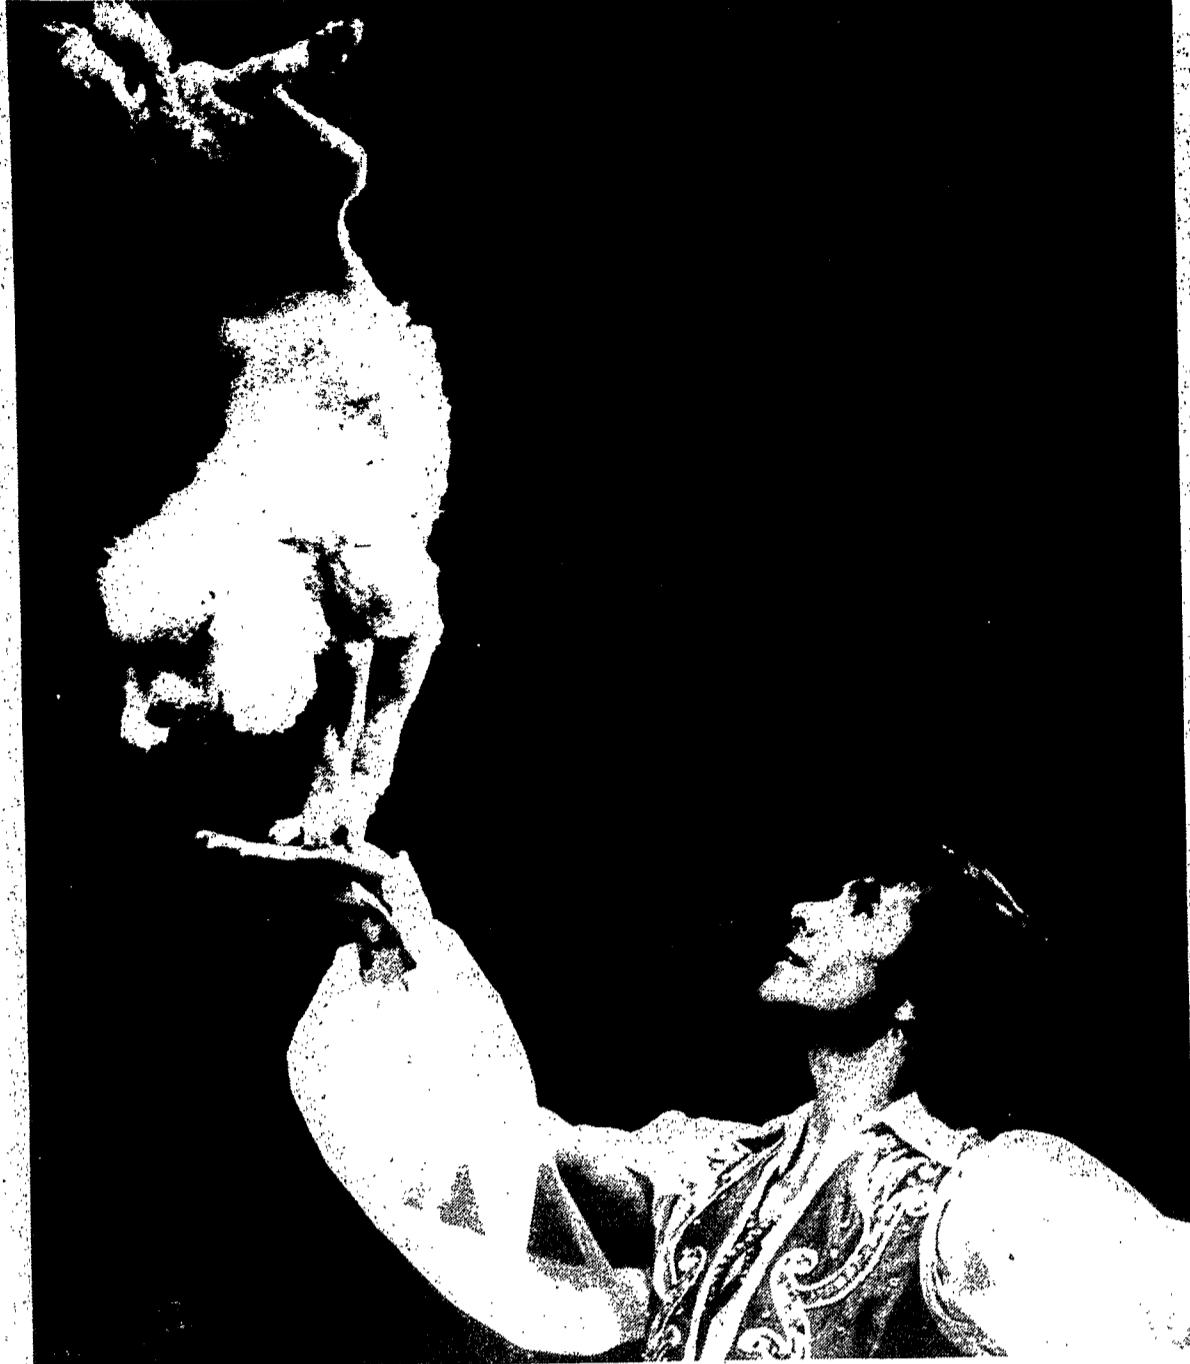

Barker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Slade Barker of Pass Christian, is presently in his fourth year at St. Stanislaus.

He is an honor roll student and a member of the varsity prep quiz bowl team, according to Brother Paul Montero, principal.

Southern dormitory life-style dramatically improved this year

HATTIESBURG—Some 250 University of Southern Mississippi students will encounter a new style of living as they settle into their dormitories for the 1987 fall semester.

Hattiesburg and Mississippi halls, two of USM's oldest dorms, were restructured internally this summer—literally tossing the traditional concept of long hallways and single rooms out the window, in favor of suites with their own living rooms and bathrooms.

"The new facilities will offer a positive residence hall environment," said Dr. Robert Kivetz, USM housing director. "The style of living will offer more privacy, better opportunities for study and a better sense of community."

The suites, each unique in size and shape, will house from four to six students in up to three separate bedrooms, which open up into hallways connecting them to a bathroom and a living area with family den-type furniture.

The bedrooms have a closet, bed and study desk for each student. Suites are centrally air-conditioned, with an individual thermostat setting the desired temperature in each suite.

Kivetz said he hopes the renovations will improve the learning environment for residents of the two halls.

"Student attitudes and their perceptions are based on the environment—not only on the social environment, but the physical environment," he said. "Our goal is to provide a positive experience for the students through the two types of environments."

Each dorm will house a maximum of 123 male students at a rent of $585 per semester for double occupancy—matching the cost of Elam Arms, Hillcrest and Vann dormitories.

Externally, the two men's dormitories maintain their historical look. Hattiesburg Hall, built in 1912 as a women's dormitory, and Forrest County hall, were the first housing units on the campus.

Mississippi Hall followed in 1914. The buildings' external appearance was enhanced by landscaping the courtyard between them with plantings on sculptured embankments corralled by low, winding brick walls, which also serve as benches. The $3.1 million renovations were made with the assistance of a $2.7 million loan from the U.S. Education department College Housing Loan Program, Kivetz said.

Congress authorized $60 million to be awarded to higher education institutions nationwide during fiscal 1987. The low-interest loans must be utilized for the construction, reconstruction or renovation of housing facilities, undergraduate academic facilities or other educational structures.

Dr. David Bodenhamer, USM assistant to the vice president for

USM seeking federal funds to renovate

HATTIESBURG—The University of Southern Mississippi has applied for a $2.9 million government loan to help fund renovation of a number of aging buildings on the USM campus.

The state College Board, during its regular August meeting, authorized USM to seek the loan from the U.S. Department of Education's Division of Higher Education Incentive Programs.

The money would be made available through the College Facilities Loan Program, authorized under Title VII, as part F of the Higher Education Act of 1965 as amended.

Academic affairs, said the university would use its loan to renovate approximately 194,000 square feet of space in College Hall, the George Hurst Building, Home Economics Building, the Honors House and Cook Library.

He said the loan would be repaid at 5.5 percent interest over 30 years, if approved by Sept. 30 deadline, from funds generated by USM tuition fees.

Soft drink dealer sponsoring elementary school benefit event

To celebrate the 40th Anniversary of Allen Beverages and the grand opening of the Pepsi Plant, the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Gulfport is providing the lower elementary schools (K-3) of the Gulf Coast with a great opportunity to earn up to $40,000.

Every Allen Beverage bottle cap will be worth five cents to participating schools. Students at participating schools will collect these caps and bring them to their schools. Allen Beverages will then reimburse each school five cents for every bottle cap collected between now and Oct. 23.

Each participating school will determine the purpose for the money raised.

The student from each participating school who collects the most bottle caps will win two free tickets to Pepsi's Sesame Street Live Show to be held at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Coliseum on Tuesday, Oct. 27.

The top school in each county (based on the average number of caps collected per student enrolled), will receive a private Pepsi Party at their school featuring two Sesame Street characters.

All lower elementary schools in the following six counties are eligible: George, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Pearl River, and Stone.

The Allen Beverage bottle caps eligible for this promotion include bottle caps of all sizes from these products: Pepsi, Diet Pepsi, Mountain Dew, Pepsi Free, Diet Pepsi Free, Slice Lemon-Lime, Slice-Orange, Slice Apple, Slice Cherry Cola, Diet Lemon-Lime Slice, Diet Orange Slice, Diet Apple Slice, Diet Cherry Cola Slice, Sunkist Orange, Diet Sunkist Orange, Sunkist Plus, A&W Root Beer, Sugar Free A&W Root Beer, A&W Creme Soda, and Yahoo Chocolate.

For more information or to register, contact Dale James at the Pepsi-Cola Bottling company of Gulfport, 831-4343.

Rock Tracks

by Rob Ferrus

The charts have a bit of a Spanish flavor this week. Los Lobos' "La Bamba," the first song sung entirely in a foreign language to hit No. 1 since the Singing Nun's "Dominique" in 1963, jumped into the numero uno spot this week. And Madonna's "Who's That Girl," which is part English and part Spanish, dropped from number one to number two.

"La Bamba" is late songwriter Ritchie Valens' first number one hit taken from one of his movies. Two of them ("Say You, Say Me" and "Up Where We Belong") won Oscars for best song. The other two ("Against All Odds" and "Separate Lives") were nominated for best song. The fifth is "La Bamba," which, unfortunately, won't be eligible because it's an oldie, but it does mark the first time that a Hackford film has produced a top-five soundtrack album, jumping to number four this week.

Although Madonna's "Who's That Girl" has dropped one slot, I don't think she has any worries about losing fans. Her current concert and lingerie fashion-show tour of Great Britain is being received with an hysteria reminiscent of The Beatles' concerts. The rock fans of England may be enthusiastic, but the more retiring establishment has other opinions. Said one Parliament member, "This is nonsense. I hope the British taxpayers aren't footing the bill for all of the inconvenience she's causing here," referring to the royal treatment she's been receiving (police have been stopping traffic for the passage of her limousine, etc.). One city councilor, annoyed by the overcrowding and noise created by Madonna's visit, referred to her as a "hyped-up tart." A lot of this animosity, understandably, is a result of the superstar's refusal to accept an audience with the royal family. "If the Queen wants to see me," said Madonna, "she can come to one of my concerts."

USM music professor contracts for CD record

HATTIESBURG—A University of Southern Mississippi professor of music has signed with a major record company to record a number of orchestral pieces adapted for solo guitar.

John Dechiaro—a classical guitarist and an associate professor of music in USM's School of Music—has signed an agreement with Centaur Records to produce a compact disc recording of familiar tunes and classical works early next year.

"There is so much material out there that's been played over and over," Dechiaro said. "Record companies are interested in a person's repertoire, his instrument and his name. They won't hire you unless you're Segovia."

"So, I have decided to work with music that is familiar to the general public and to present it in a new medium," Dechiaro added.

According to Dechiaro, adapting music written for a 90-piece orchestra to be played on a six-string guitar is not an easy task.

"The trick is locating the melody and going on with it from there," Dechiaro said, tongue-in-cheek. "It's like making a size 10 foot fit in a size 6 shoe."

Dechiaro's transcriptions for the new album will include: "The Swan" from Saint Saen's "Carnival of the Animals"; "Rondeau" (or the theme from Masterpiece Theatre) by Mouret; the "Dance of the flutes" from the "Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky; and "Symphony in B-flat" by William Boyce.

The USM musician and author has recorded extensively, written for and performed in major educational television programs and has played major concerts across the eastern United States, including two solo performances at Carnegie Hall.

His work in last year's Mississippi ETV production, "Music from the Movies," won gold plaque awards at both the New York and Houston International Film Festivals.

This fall, he will serve as a clinician at a joint conference of the American String Teachers Association and the Guitar Foundation of America, and will present his five new instruction books written for beginning and intermediate guitar students.

Coast Episcopal Elementary School observes Constitution anniversary

Coast Episcopal Elementary School Wednesday participated in the nationwide Celebration of Citizenship commemorating the signing of the Constitution 200 years ago.

The children marched to Christ Episcopal Church singing "Yankee Doodle."

The children were dressed in Colonial

Students watched a special telecast on the Constitution at noon followed by birthday cake in honor of the 200-year-old Constitution.

USM rush results in 320 bids issued

HATTIESBURG—Formal sorority and fraternity formal rush activities climaxed with the start of fall classes at the University of Southern Mississippi with some 84 percent of participating new students pledging a Greek organization.

"The week was very successful and everyone was pleased with the outcome," said Greek Life Director Barbara Ross, adding, "We look forward to an exciting year of Greek life, with a variety of activities planned."

Ross said a new personal computer program was used during rush this year, allowing more information to be tabulated in shorter periods of time.

For sororities, a total of 220 bids were issued by nine sororities. Fraternities enlisted 87 percent of their rush participants, with 100 bids issued from 10 fraternities.

Part of the success was credited by Ross to new full-time staff member Chris Crenshaw, who works specifically with fraternities. Crenshaw said the fraternity rush that takes place before school begins had advantages over the system used last year.

Ross said while formal rush is complete, open rush for individuals continues throughout the semester for sororities. Fraternity open rush began Sept. 9.

Some activities planned during the semester by Greeks included sponsorship of an AIDS forum Sept. 14, Greek Unity Week Sept. 28-Oct. 2 and Alcohol Awareness Week Oct. 19-23.

Certified A+ Rated Better Than

The Best.
The Certified Angus Beef rating is given to only 10% of all beef. By contrast, the USDA Choice rating is given to 90% of all beef graded.

The Flavor.

Food experts nation-wide agree: Certified Angus Beef is the tenderest, best tasting beef in America.

The Source.

Certified Angus Beef is available in fine restaurants and at our store.

The Trim.

Extraordinarily lean. Never more than a quarter-inch of fat. This not only saves you money, but helps make Certified Angus Beef lower in cholesterol.

The Guarantee.

Certified Angus Beef is not only rated better than USDA Choice, it's unconditionally guaranteed. It always was, it always will be.
